Announces

The Felix Posen Fellowship Post-Doctoral / Junior Faculty

The Felix Posen Post-Doctoral / Junior Faculty Fellowship is intended for scholars from Israel and abroad who have shown exceptional excellence, depth and originality in their academic work, and whose research investigates antisemitism, anti-Jewish hostility and the mechanisms of antisemitic prejudice through the ages, focusing on relations between Jews and non-Jews, particularly in situations of tension and crisis, and may include comparative perspectives on other forms of discrimination and racism.

The Center will award up to two one-year Fellowships in the Humanities, the Social Sciences, Law or Economics – beginning October 1, 2017. The Fellowship offers an annual stipend of $30,000. Fellows are expected to be present at the Center for no less than three days a week and to participate in the Center's academic activities.

Qualified candidates must have completed their Ph.D. no earlier than November 2011. Candidates who have not yet graduated may apply; their acceptance will be conditional upon approval of their degrees by May 1, 2017.

THE DEADLINE FOR SUBMISSION IS MARCH 1, 2017
