

The Vidal Sassoon International Center for the Study of Antisemitism (SICSA) and The Avraham Harman Research Institute of Contemporary Jewry (ICJ)

ANNOUNCE

The Knapp Family Foundation MA / Doctoral Fellowship (2026–2027)

The Fellowship is awarded to advanced students at the Hebrew University who demonstrate outstanding academic achievement, intellectual depth, and originality. Their research must focus on the phenomena of antisemitism, racism, discrimination, and various forms of persecution throughout history, approached from diverse disciplinary angles and/or comparative perspectives within the broader fields of the Humanities (including Digital Humanities and the History of Emotions), the Social Sciences, and Law.

The Fellowship is offered for the academic year 2026–2027. An extension for one additional year may be granted, contingent upon substantial progress in the research and subject to approval by the SICSA Academic Committee. Fellows are expected to be present at the Center for no fewer than three days per week and to participate actively in the academic activities of the Center and the Institute. The Fellowship will commence on October 1, 2026.

The Fellowship provides an annual stipend of $12,000 for MA students and $15,000 for PhD candidates.

Last date to submit applications is May 31, 2026.

Submissions should include: statement of research plan (3 pages, with title); curriculum vitae and list of publications (for PhD students); two recommendation letters; grades sheet and complete contact information.
